

MIT Sloan Fellows MBA

SFMBA

One year. A lifetime of impact.

The MIT Sloan Fellows MBA (SFMBA) program is a full-time, one-year MBA program that draws an international population of high-potential, mid-career leaders, eager to discover new possibilities for invention — and action.

THE FELLOWS EXPERIENCE

Spend one year immersed in the MIT ecosystem. Delve into a curriculum built on the foundations of management and the program's three pillars: leadership, innovation, and global perspective. Pursue electives, industry-centered projects, and independent research focused on your topics of interest.

12 Months

Full-time, mid-career MBA. Collaborate with 100+ talented global peers — a community of hands-on problem solvers eager to challenge the status quo.

3 Degree Options
